For all entries, personal data comes from the passenger list submitted for immigration p a person has been fairly conclusively identified from the IGI (in italics). I have no access the IGI entries. Years of birth extrapolated by me. Places of origin may not necessarily b given to the shipping company. Some families may not be Mull families at all, but people to Tobermory to live some time prior to the departure of this voyage. (All numbers appro

MULL and COLL

Family group #1

This is possibly a large extended family ex Coll all of whom went to Australia – viz the parents and their unmarried children, but it also seems very likely from IGI evidence that the two other sons, Hugh and Roderick are their sons.

MCDONALD, John, b. “Call”, farmer, 53 (parents Roderick MCDONALD and Sarah MCDONALD) and daughter Isabella CAMERON, 50, b. Banff (parents James CAMERON and Richel Davis-) and daughter Jane 24 and Jane 27, all born Coll; Isabella, 13, no place of birth given, probably Coll; and son

John b. abt. 1786

(Isabella b. abt. 1789, Banff)

Jane b. abt 1812

Isabella chr. Sibella, 13 May 1814, Tyree and Coll (listed twice)

James chr. 14 July 1816, Coll

Catherine, chr. 30 June 1820, Coll

Isabella b. abt. 1826

Other children born of parents of the same names, possibly not all from this family unless confirmed by the immigration records – as many did – are:

Janet, chr. 25 June 1800, Tyree and Coll

Marion, chr. 23 January 1803, Tyree and Coll

Jean, chr. 24 July 1808

Also Hugh and Roderick – see below

Isabella b. abt. 1811

I have probable further information on the FERGUSON family. According to Jo's book, Niel FERGUSON buried in the Calgary churchyard (recorded on the Mull site). He was January 1837. A tombstone mentions his son Archibald, who is not in my list of children, him. On the LDS site there is a probable church member-submitted entry for him aged 4 on 6 December 1859.

Mary McD ll : Assuming this surname to be MCDUGALL alias Mary MCLUCAIS (MCL FERGUSON some time before 1808, possibly in Penmore, because that is from where s come, and they had at least 10-12 children. (These names and dates of christenings are the LDS and more details could be obtained from anyone who has access to the fuller en OPRs.) The names I have in my McLucas database are:
